Floating ever deeper into fall

Larry Engdahl of Bethel takes a break from paddling to enjoy the view on the Magalloway River in Wilson's Mills approaching the base of The Diamond Peaks in Wentworth Location, N.H., during the 18th Annual Fall Foliage Flotilla, held on Columbus Day. The annual Mahoosuc Land Trust paddling event was first held in 1987 as a means of raising awareness of the recreational potential of the Androscoggin River after the cleanup efforts prescribed by the federal Clean Water Act and state legislation. In past years the flotilla was held on a section of the river between the Shelburne Dam and the Rumford Dam, where the land trust has created a "canoe trail" with public access points every few miles. This year the paddling party of 17 participants with 11 boats traveled to Wilson's Mills to explore the Magalloway, a tributary of the Androscoggin. (Photo by Steve Wright)

Bethel to vote Monday on riverbank stabilization funds

By MICHAEL DANIELS

Bethel voters will decide Monday if they are willing to spend up to $101,327 to stabilize several hundred feet of riverbank near Davis Park, and to replace the treatment plant's 12-inch outfall pipe (which had been located on the river bottom).

If they agree to, the town will more than likely be forced to borrow money to cover the cost of the work.

The proposed project is in large part the result of mid-December flooding that carried off nearly 200 feet of Androscoggin riverbank, and 30 to 40 feet of the treatment plant's 12-inch outfall pipe (which had been located on the river bottom).

While the flood was the single worst erosion event at the site in recent years, the problem is ongoing and has recently been getting worse.

An engineer told the selectmen in June that "in the last couple of years" 10 to 25 feet of the land buffer between the park and river has been eaten away.

If the site is not stabilized, he predicted, the popular park would inevitably end up in the river, possibly as early

Greenwood recall vote tonight:

Ivan Roberts: It won't be pretty

By MICHAEL DANIELS

Greenwood voters will decide tonight (Thursday, Oct. 14) if they wish to oust selectman Ivan Roberts.

A special Town Meeting will be held at 7 p.m. with only one article on the warrant: "Shall the town vote to recall Ivan Roberts, selectman and assessor of the town of Greenwood."

Roberts was elected to a three-year term (his first) as selectman at the annual Town Meeting in March of last year.

Long before the next Town Meeting, however, several residents and town officials (as well as officials in nearby Woodstock) began complaining about what they regarded as his abrasive manner and refusal to work cooperatively with others.

As a result of the complaints about Roberts, an article was introduced at this year's annual Town Meeting setting up a mechanism for recalling elected officials.

The article passed 44-34, on a secret ballot.

The first step in the recall process adopted by the town calls for citizens to petition for a special Town Meeting to vote on recall.

On Sept. 7, selectmen accepted a petition from 65 residents calling for such a meeting.

The petition was circulated by former Selectman Marie Bartlett, who cited several reasons for it, including the disruptive affect of Roberts' behavior on town government.

"The other two selectmen former Town Manager Carol Whitman, Deputy Clerk Angie Lovejoy and our present town manager, Kim Sparks, all con-

Committee recommendation is a small gain, but there's still a long way to go

By ALISON ALOISIO

SAD44's Ad Hoc Committee on Football will recommend the re-establishment of the sport at Telstar High School — but only if certain conditions are met.

The full School Board had been scheduled to vote on the committee recommendation at Tuesday night's board meeting. But because only 10 of 17 members were present, directors tabled formal action on it until the next meeting (Nov. 8).

The conditions were laid out and discussed, however.

No upfront $$ from SAD44

Under the current school budget constraints, said Board Chair Becky Cummings, "we knew that we don't have the money to say, 'Let's start a football team.'"

The estimated figure for start-up costs over the first three years of the program is $70,000. That would include such items as goalposts and other equipment.

So to help assure initial funding for a team — and to gauge the level of commitment within the community — the committee put together the following stipulations:

A committee of interested people would have to be formed to raise $45,000 in cash, and an additional $25,000 in pledges.

Pledges would be yearly, and payable in full by 2007. The deadline for the $45,000 in cash, and the establishment of pledges, is June 30, 2005.

The board would retain the Fair will help fund dental work for low-income people with disfigurements

By ALISON ALOISIO

A Bethel church project to help local people with severe dental problems has been so successful that a public fundraising event has been established to continue the work.

The Smile Fund, created last year by the West Parish Congregational Church, provides funding for dental work for people who have been disfigured by problems with their teeth.

Some cases can be so extreme that the person has trouble finding employment, according to Marguerite Graham, a member of the church's World Service Committee.

In the past year, six people have received help — leaving the church without enough money to take on new cases, she said.

So the committee is now planning a "Smile Fund Fair," to be held Saturday, Oct. 23 from 9 a.m. to 2 p.m. at the church.

The event will be set up as an indoor yard sale. "The basement of the church will be filled with treasures from many households," said Graham.

The Smile Fund operates confidentially. Referrals are made through local social service organizations. The people served must meet income eli-

STATE LINKS CHAMPS

The Telstar High School Golf Team won its first-ever State Class C Championship Saturday at Natanis Golf Course in Vassalboro. The team score of 320 was its best this season, beating second-place Old Orchard Beach by 14 strokes. Brady Chapman, Kyle Maines, Sean Caddigan and Errol Andrews combined for the winning score. Earlier last week, the team won the Mountain Valley Conference Championship, defeating second-placed Mountain Valley 344-353. ALBANY YARD SALE

To the Editor:

The Albany Improvement Association is holding its fall yard sale on two weekends this year. The first day of the sale will be Saturday, Oct. 16, and the second date is Saturday, Oct. 23. On both days the yard sale will be open at 9 a.m. Please, no early birds. We have many new and exciting things to offer this time, and we look forward to seeing many old friends as well as new ones.

The sale is located at the Albany Town Hall on the corner of Vernon Street and Hunt's Corner Road.

TAX CAP A VERY BAD IDEA

To the Editor:

During the week ending Oct. 9 Republicans in the U.S. House of Representatives passed a bill that gives tax breaks to a long list of corporations (Nascar track owners, Oldsmobile dealers, pharmaceuticals, are examples). Michaud and Allen voted "No."

Meanwhile, back in Maine, Republicans are supporting the Tax Cap about which they say: "Some services will become pay-for-use. A community may decide if you don't use the library you don't pay for it. If you want your child to play football, you pay for the uniforms, the fields and the expenses, and those with no children don't pay."

I would hate to see anyone, child to elderly, kept from the library. I am afraid that perhaps up to one-half the football team would not be able to play if the parents either could not or would not pay. I assume this would apply to all sports, male and female. I don't have children but I believe everyone, especially in a democracy, should have an equal right to use the library and to play sports. The tax cap is a very bad idea.

LONGABERGER THANKS

To the Editor:

The Friends of Telstar would like to thank all the families and businesses that supported us by filing our Longaberger Baskets and those who attended our Basket Bingo fundraiser on Sunday, Oct. 10.

We had 16 Baskets for the Bingo, two baskets for blackout games and five baskets for our raffles. We had so much fun and raised approximately $500 toward scholarships, awards and special treats for our Telstar students.

The Friends of Telstar group meets once a month in October, January, March and May. We have our business meeting and then a speaker on a topic requested at the meetings by parents, staff or community members. Our next meeting will be on Tuesday Oct. 19, in the Telstar Library from 6:30 to 8 p.m. Please come and join us and hear what is happening at Telstar.

We had many supporters from both TMS and THS who filled our baskets. We would like to send out a special thank you to Shelley Douglass, Marilyn Swan, Kayla Merrill and family, Charlie Mills, Brenda Wight, Laurie Dempsey, Emily, Karen and Richard DeCarolis, Lisa Haines, Betsy Raymond, Becky Kuvaja, Karen Rosenberg, Joanie Kimball, Megan, Katie, Robin and Wayne Smith, The Roberti Family, Elizabeth Gallagher, Bethel Chamber of Commerce, Country Sampler, Maine Line Products, Designs, Pooh Corner Farm and Mahoosuc Kids Association.

We would also like to thank the volunteers who made this fundraising event possible: Robin Smith, Brenda Wight, Sootie Brown, Sheila Fleet, Marilyn Swan, Susan Gordon, Locke Mills Legion: Earl Tyler, Ray Crockett, Lily Deegan, Joanie Kimball and James Kimball.

We had so much fun we want to do this again soon, so we hope to see everyone on Sunday, March 13, 2005. Till then thank you, and God Bless.

FOR EVERYONE'S INFORMATION

To the Editor:

Am I the only one who didn't know that when one calls Oxford County Dispatch wanting to speak with an officer of the Bethel Police Department that one's name, phone number and personal business would be blatted to all those who have scanners, some of which are used for legitimate reasons but most, unfortunately, are used to titillate the curiosity of the idle? I call this an invasion of privacy.

I'm told if you don't want your business made public you need to ask Dispatch to not broadcast it. The reason they broadcast the information I'm told is that the police officers are most often found in their cruisers. In order to alleviate this infringement on our privacy the department would need scramblers, which are cost prohibitive.

Of course, Dispatch could ask your permission to broadcast your information. That wouldn't cost one thin dime. Dispatch did assure me that there was a law against repeating information you hear coming over the scanner. Ya, right.... just as if.

NEW OPTIONS AT THE SKI SALE

To the Editor:

The Bethel community and visitors are invited to celebrate the coming of ski season by attending the Bethel Outing Club's 24th annual Ski Sale, Friday, Oct. 29, and Saturday, Oct. 30, at Gould Academy Field House in Bethel. Fifteen vendors and over 4,000 pieces of alpine, telemark, cross-country and snowboard equipment and clothes for toddlers will be on sale. Sale hours are: Friday, Oct. 29 from 6:30 p.m. to 9:30 p.m. and Saturday, Oct. 30 from 9 a.m. to 1 p.m. Ski Depot and Sunday River Cross Country Ski Center will be available to mount bindings at the sale.

This year, the club is offering more options for individuals with serviceable equipment to sell, described in detail at www.bethelouting.org and subject to the usual 15 percent consignment fee. All items must be priced on tags provided by the Outing Club. "Early-bird" check-in and tagging will be offered on Wednesday and Thursday, Oct. 27 and 28 from 5 to 7 p.m. at 24 Church Street, Bethel. To speed up the check-in process, up to four free tags per seller (with a 25-cent fee per additional item) may be obtained at the Bethel Area Chamber of Commerce (www.bethelmaine.com) and filled out in advance. Tags can be purchased at the sale for 50 cents each after 12 noon on Friday, Oct. 29. Persons or groups with more than five items are encouraged to complete their tickets prior to the sale.

As usual, the sale requires dozens of volunteers, and even an hour or two can be invaluable. Contact Beth Clarke at 824-4692 (clarkeb@cps.sad44.org) to request a volunteer slot at the sale, or for pre-sale preparations.

Although the main purpose of the sale is to provide a community service by offering affordable equipment, proceeds of the sale benefit area youth ski programs. Since 1980, the Bethel Outing Club has purchased hundreds of skis, boots, and poles for elementary school students, provided funds to middle and high school Nordic programs, and given grants to area skiers on regional or national teams in cross-country and biathlon competitions.

The purpose of the Bethel Outing Club is to promote Nordic skiing and family-oriented outings with particular emphasis on youth ski programs. Details about the club's other activities, the annual Flying Moose Classic ski race, club photos, membership information, and an Activities Calendar are available at www.bethelouting.org. Interested persons are invited to the annual meeting of the club at the Clarke residence, 14 Church Street in Bethel on Sunday, Nov. 13 at 7:30 p.m. Funding requests for 2004-2005 should be provided in writing to: Treasurer, Bethel Outing Club, PO Box 637, Bethel, ME 04217 prior to Nov. 5.

TIM CARTER

To the Editor:

I'm writing in support of Tim Carter's bid for a seat in the House, representing District 91. I've known Tim for many years and found him to be knowledgeable, honest, always willing to listen and helpful. I believe he'll work hard for every one of us and serve our district with integrity. I encourage you to vote for him on Nov. 2.

BRUCE BRYANT

To the Editor:

I am writing this letter to urge voters in Senate District 14 to re-elect Bruce Bryant to the Maine Senate. Bruce has served us well in his first two-year term as District 14 Senator. The following represents just some of the things that he has accomplished during his initial term:

- Chaired two important committees for residents in this district: Inland Fisheries and Wildlife and Agriculture, Conservation and Forestry.
- Secured $1.3 million in funding for the River Valley Technology Center in Rumford.
- Responded quickly and effectively to the destructive flooding in the Canton area.
- Chaired a special task force that led to expansion of the state's fish hatcheries.
- Sponsored and led the effort to develop and pass a meningitis vaccine notification bill.
- Remains incredibly approachable and responsive to constituents throughout this geographically large district as evidenced by the activities outlined above.

Bruce's endless energy and commitment to service is evident in his past performance as a House Representative for District 93 for three terms, his present Senate activities, his involvement in local affairs and his role as dad and mentor to three daughters in whose lives he is deeply involved including such activities as coach of several teams, friend and supporter.

It is without hesitation I support Bruce. His passion to do the right thing, his openness to hear all sides of an issue, along with his commitment to honesty and integrity, make him the kind of person that I want to represent me in the State Senate.

Please join me in voting for Bruce Bryant on Nov. 2.

ROB CAMERON

To the Editor:

When we first moved to Rumford we were extremely fortunate to be a neighbor to Rob Cameron and his family. Being new to an area is always a challenging experience. Rob and his family took us into their family and helped us to adjust to life in rural Maine.

When he decided to run for the House of Representatives in 1992 we could not think of anyone better for the job, and he successfully fulfilled his commitments for the following eight years brining a dedication and integrity to his service.

As neighbors we always treasured conversations with Rob because his thought processes were always consistent to his way of life. Rob always impressed us by his patient listening, reflecting on what we said and then his response. He never reacted impulsively or treated any issues like they were not important.

We always left their house feeling better for it.

When we look at the stand that Rob takes on protecting the environment we again see the careful thought and consideration that he has given to this ideal. Rob's life experiences, working with the land both through farming and lumber have shaped him.

He has the strength and courage to stand up and represent us on the issues that are important to our daily lives that we take for granted. Rob will make an excellent addition to the Maine Senate.

In a time of politicians saying whatever they feel will get them elected, we all can feel confident that Rob will work hard to do his best for the citizens of District 14.

After living in Boston for 33 years, Carney returned to Andover in 1992.

She became secretary to the Board of Selectmen in 1999.

In November 2001, she was elected to the board to fill out the term of Mark Thurston, who resigned.

She was elected to a full term in 2002, and continued to serve as secretary until last year.

For the past several years, Carney has also written Andover's town column for the Bethel Citizen (see page 5).

An election will take place Nov. 2 (Election Day) to fill her seat until the annual Town Meeting in March.

Four people have taken out nomination papers for the position, according to town officials.

They include Hope Petersen (current secretary to the board), Laura Hutchins (who has served previously), Philena Chaisson, Dinne Cutting and David Percival.

Campaign signs disappear

WOODSTOCK — Most of the 40 campaign signs put out by state Senate candidate Rob Cameron in Woodstock have disappeared, according to Cameron. He has had similar problems in Buckfield and Jay. Cameron said he is running out of time to have more printed for the Nov. 2 election.

Youth football meeting planned

BETHEL — Interested parents, boys and coaches are invited to a meeting on Wednesday, Oct. 20 at 7 p.m. in Berry Auditorium at Telstar High School to discuss organizational strategy for introducing youth football next fall. The program would include grades three through six. "A strong response to an initial proposal has prompted the need for a meeting," said organizer Jim Rose. Any families who may not have responded initially but are interested are invited to join the effort, he said. For more information, call Rose at 824-4676. (The plans for the program are independent of recent discussions in SAD44 about a school-sponsored football program at Telstar, Rose said.)

Bus safety week coming

BETHEL — Next week, Oct. 18 through 22, is School Bus Safety Week. Burnie Rice, SAD44 transportation supervisor, provides the following information about the responsibilities of everyone in, and around, school buses: For motorists, be aware of kids' safety, be patient, and use caution when the bus' yellow lights are on. It is against the law to pass a stopped bus when the red lights are on. For parents: have children at the bus stop on time, and support the driver if behavior problems occur. For students: Remain in the seat while the bus is in motion, and be courteous to fellow passengers and the driver. And for bus drivers: Check the bus before each trip, and drive safely at all times.

Body identified as pastor

ANDOVER — A body found along the South Arm Road Saturday has been identified as that of Michael Chaisson, a pastor from Rumford. Chaisson was reported missing about two weeks ago. The body was found on the ground near a vehicle, and had apparently been there for several days. The death was not suspicious, but a cause has not yet been determined, according to police. Investigators were waiting for results of toxicology tests, which can take several weeks. Chaisson, the pastor of the North American OldRoman Catholic Church, was reported missing on Sept. 29 after he did not return to his home at the Hotel Harris.

Work begins on Waterford bridge

WATERFORD — Repairs to the Bear Pond Bridge on Route 37 was expected to begin today (Thursday). MDOT will widen the bridge by two feet, remove the current railings and install an updated railing system. Traffic will be restricted to alternating one-way during the construction period. The project is expected to take approximately 10 to 12 weeks to complete.

'Once Upon A Farm' book signing

RUMFORD — A book-signing with the authors of "Once Upon a Farm, Stories about the Crossland Farm," Volume II, will take place Oct. 23 at the Pennacook Art Gallery on Congress Street in Rumford. Four of the five authors (Joyce Morgan, Lloyd Crossland, Burton Crossland, Fern Stearns and Gail Parent) will be present. The five siblings self-published their first book about growing up on a dairy farm in western Maine during the 1930s and 1940s in 1993. Morgan still lives on the farm, located in Mexico, and Parent lives in Hanover. The signing is scheduled for 10 a.m. to 2 p.m.

Cooking/health seminar

BETHEL — A Vegetarian Cooking and Health Seminar will begin Oct. 19 at 6 p.m. the Taste of Eden restaurant on Main Street. The four-week course will include presentations on nutrition, healthful lifestyle changes, and demonstrations of vegetarian recipes with sampling of the finished product during each class. Participants will learn how to lower fat, cholesterol, and sugar intake and still have tasty foods to enjoy. There will also be discussion of how to prevent, and reverse, some degenerative diseases such as high blood pressure, high cholesterol, obesity and adult onset diabetes. The cost is $5 per meeting. For more information, or to pre-register, call 824-8939 or stop in.

Tripp's federal case dismissed

PORTLAND — A U.S. District Court judge on Wednesday accepted the recommendation of a magistrate judge (Citizen, Sept. 30) and dismissed former Bethel Police Chief Darren Tripp's lawsuit against the town of Bethel and Town Manager Scott Cole.

Dealers oppose car standards

AUGUSTA — Maine car dealers and the automobile industry are opposing a rule aimed at encouraging the sale of cleaner, more fuel-efficient cars in the state in five years. Maine's Board of Environmental Protection held a hearing last Thursday on the rule, which would also need the approval of the Legislature before taking effect in 2009. Environmentalists and owners of hybrid gas-electric cars who support the rule held a rally outside the hearing. The proposal calls for a zero-emissions vehicle, or ZEV, program modeled after a California law and adopted by several other states. It requires 10 percent of the cars sold in the state to meet stringent emissions standards that can now be met with gas-electric hybrids, some gasoline-powered engines, experimental fuel-cell cars as well as electric-powered vehicles. Environmentalists say the rule would reduce air pollution that causes health problems like asthma. The ZEV proposal also has the support of Maine's Department of Environmental Protection, which sees it as a way to reduce greenhouse gases. But representatives of General Motors, the Maine Automobile Association and the Alliance of Automobile Manufacturers said the rules are not needed because public demand is already pushing the industry to produce cleaner, more fuel-efficient models. Dealers said they're concerned about setting a quota that would limit the availability of all types of cars. They also said they could be left with cars on their lots they might not be able to sell.

From the Bethel Police Log:

Monday, Oct. 11

At 1:38 p.m. Chief Alan Carr and Officer Randall Baker responded to an accident on Vernon Street. A vehicle had gone off the right side of the road and landed on its roof. The driver was taken by Bethel Rescue to Stephens Memorial Hospital to be checked.

Sunday, Oct. 10

At 12:30 a.m. Officer Harry Sims stopped a subject for weaving on Route 2. The driver had just gotten out of work and was tired. The officer determined she had not been drinking.

At 2:05 a.m. Officer Harry Sims stopped a resident of Scotland for speeding on Route 2. He had just arrived in the U.S. the day before. He was asked to slow down.

At 12:25 p.m. Officer Rusty Daley received a report of a vehicle theft from an area parking lot. The owner said it had last been seen heading toward Bethel Village, and that there was a shotgun and a hunting knife in it. A county deputy then located the vehicle in another parking lot. The subject who was driving had mistaken it for her friend's vehicle. It was an identical match. The owner did not wish to pursue charges.

Saturday, Oct. 9

At 9:57 p.m. Officer Shane Thomas responded to a report of a civil disturbance near the location of a wedding reception. The bride and several other members of the wedding party were warned for disorderly conduct.

Friday, Oct. 8

At 10 a.m. Chief Alan Carr and Officer Randall Baker received a report that a missing juvenile girl was staying at an area lodging place. The juvenile was located in one of the rooms. She was taken to the Oxford County Sheriff's Office.

Thursday, Oct. 7

At 4:01 p.m. Officer Shane Thomas responded to a report of harassment at a residence. A juvenile was arrested and charged with terrorizing.

Recall

fided in me that they were having serious problems working with Ivan," Bartlett said.

"These problems got progressively worse and escalated to a point where Angie Lovejoy stated that she was going to resign if she had to continue working with Ivan."

In addition, she said, the joint Greenwood-Woodstock Solid Waste Board (which operates the towns' shared transfer station) "was in turmoil due to Ivan's behavior, with a strong possibility of Woodstock withdrawing from the two-town transfer station agreement."

In his own defense, Roberts has pointed to various ways in which he claims to have saved the town money.

But doing so, he has said, required overcoming the lethargy and indifference of his fellow selectmen, Fred Henderson and Wayne Hakala — and that, he believes, generated the resentment that led to tonight's meeting.

Petition accepted

The selectmen, including Roberts, accepted the recall petition, and over the objections of Roberts — who wanted the Town Meeting scheduled for November — Henderson and Hakala, voted to set it for tonight.

That move was applauded by the town office staff.

"We really need to have closure on this," Lovejoy said.

Sparks agreed. "We all need to put this behind us," she said.

Roberts, however, was not pleased.

Sparks said he came into the Town Office Tuesday morning and predicted tonight's meeting would be long, messy and "not very pretty."

But speaking on the record with The Citizen that evening, Roberts struck a more conciliatory tone.

"I hope that a lot of people come and listen and vote the way they feel," he said. "That's the way we do it in a democracy."

Tonight's meeting will be held in the Town Hall (next to the Post Office). The registrar of voters will be available there from 6 p.m. to check in voters and register new voters.

If Roberts is recalled, Sparks said, a second Town Meeting is expected to be scheduled in early January to fill his position.

Football

option to re-evaluate if the goals are not completed by June, 2005.

The committee has been discussing football for a year and a half.

"We believe there's interest," said director and committee member Kathi Schandemeier of Newry. "But we don't have any commitments yet."

Director Bill Brown, also of Newry, asked if there had been any indication of "heavy hitters" in the area who might make substantial contributions to a football fund.

"We don't know that," said Cummings. "That would be the committee's (the new committee) job — to go out and find those people."

Telstar has had football before, but it was discontinued in the early 1980s because of lack of participation.

At that time, soccer had also recently been introduced at the school, according to district officials.

The enrollment at Telstar then was greater than it is now.

Strong student support

A little over a year ago, the Ad Hoc committee conducted a survey of high and middle students to measure the level of interest in having a team.

The response in favor was overwhelming. Of 263 students who replied, 230 said they supported having a program.

A total of 588 surveys had been mailed to students at home.

Ninety middle school students responded, and 173 high school students.

Of the students who replied, 100 said they would like to participate in the sport. Sixteen girls said they were interested.

Some people have expressed concern about the impact a football team would have on participation in other school sports. Soccer is a particular worry.

On the survey, 69 students said they currently play another fall sport, but might play football if it were offered.

Thirty-one who did not participate in a fall sport at all said they would play football. Telstar High School also offers field hockey, golf and cross-country running in the fall.

Superintendent Dave Murphy said that from time to time over the years, students have left the district to play other sports in other school systems.

Last year, three middle school students played in the Buckfield/Dixfield Youth Football Program.

Student comments

In addition to the yes/no portion of the survey, space was also provided for student comments.

Those in favor of football commonly cited the following reasons: it would bring the school and community together and improve school spirit; many people from the community would attend games; it would get more students involved in an activity and "get them off the streets;" and it would motivate more students to keep their grades up.

Those opposing football cited some of the following reasons: it's too expensive and dangerous; it would take funds from other sports, activities and academics; and it would take players away from soccer.

One student said he/she would support football if Telstar also added a girls' soccer program, "so it is equal for both boys and girls."

The Ad Hoc committee also discussed the possibility of providing opportunities for other after-school activities besides football.

Another ad hoc committee was formed to research the topic.

Riverbank

as the coming winter.

"If you wait until next year, it's a crapshoot on how much of the park you're going to lose," he said.

The total cost of the project (including riverbank stabilization and replacing the outfall pipe) is estimated at $405,310, of which the Federal Emergency Management Agency has agreed to pick up 75 percent.

That leaves just over $100,000 for the town's 25 percent share.

Of that amount, approximately 18 percent is targeted for the outfall pipe, and will be paid for by sewer-system users (from the plant's own undesignated fund balance account).

Borrowing foreseen

The remainder of the cost, approximately $83,000, will be paid for by Bethel taxpayers at large.

And town officials expect that the money to cover that cost will most likely have to be borrowed — in large part because of voters' decision at a special Town Meeting last month to draw down $400,000 from undesignated fund balance to offset a looming tax increase.

"This has been a traditional undesignated-fund-balance-kind of project," Dutch Dresser, chairman of the Board of Selectmen, said at a meeting on the matter Monday, "but we spent that already."

At last month's meeting, the voters present, by a margin of 17-14, opted to ignore the selectmen's recommendation that they draw only $250,000 to offset taxes.

At the time of the meeting town officials were projecting a fund balance of $1.15 million — but they noted that figure was not audited.

And when the audit subsequently came in, it reduced the balance by another $253,000.

That left the fund balance approximately $400,000 short of the amount the auditor recommends the town maintain in order to meet both ongoing and unexpected expenses.

It also means there is no extra money available for the riverbank/pipe project.

Accordingly, the warrant that will go to voters at next week's meeting will contain the following caveat to the article authorizing the spending: "Passage of this article is likely to result in short-term borrowing by the town of Bethel in anticipation of taxes."

At a meeting on the matter Monday, Selectman Stan Howe held out hope that incoming tax revenues would make borrowing unnecessary.

That's my view," he said.

But Dresser said voters needed to know that borrowing was probably inevitable.

"I think everyone would agree with you, Stan," Dresser said.

"I would prefer to tell the voters the likelihood as we'll have to borrow, because we're now at something like five-ninths of what we're supposed to have in the kitty for regular town operation."

"We're in a pretty hard spot — not unpredicted, by the way," Dresser said.

The special Town Meeting will be held at 7 p.m., Monday Oct. 18 in the Town Office meeting room.

Town Manager Scott Cole said that if voters approve the spending — and the river level does not rise too fast — the town hopes to have the project completed by Dec. 1.

Smile

gibility guidelines.

"We have targeted mostly adults," said Jane Chandler, another committee member. She said there are already other projects operating to help children with dental needs.

Chandler said the results of the project have been very gratifying.

"I have heard from some of the individuals through their intermediary that we have really touched them," said Chandler. "One woman said she never thought she could smile again. She might even be willing to apply and have a successful job interview, after her teeth were fixed.

"Others have called us angels. Another said she didn't think anyone would think of her, she just kind of blended into the background. She didn't think anyone noticed her as she could never open her mouth very wide, due to self-consciousness."

"One person has gone back to college and is training for a new job. It got that person out of a serious period of depression. Each has asked how they can help someone else smile."

"I never realized the extent of the problem in the greater Bethel area. We've just touched the tip of the iceberg. Now we need to generate funds to continue the good work."

Chandler's group welcomes the donation of items to be sold at the fair.

"We're looking for a variety of items, which can be dropped off at the church Friday (Oct. 22) from noon until early evening," she said. "We're looking for someone's collectibles that might be very valuable to someone else." (No clothing, please.)

Bethel

by Virginia Keniston
Guest pastor at the Bethel Methodist Church on Sunday, Oct. 17, will be Pastor John Holaday. He will be leading worship in the absence of Pastor Geoffrey Gross.

Erland S. Wentzell of Windham has been a patient at the Maine Medical Center, Portland, since Oct. 2 and was moved on Friday, the 8th, to the Seaside Nursing Home, Baxter Boulevard, Portland, for rehabilitation.

Debbie and Jonathan Knights of Worcester, Mass., visited with her mother, Mary W. Eichel, at Songo Pond on the weekend. They helped her close her cottage for the winter. She will be leaving the 13th for Worcester, Mass., and will be moving to her new condo in Auburn, Mass., in the next several weeks. She will stay with the Knights until the move.

Michael and Kathryn Haskell Davis of Norway and daughter Nora were dinner guests Saturday evening with her parents, Colwyn and Judy Haskell. Amy Davis, Mike's mother, was also a dinner guest. Nora was at home with her parents in Norway for the weekend from the University of Mary Washington, Va.

Renee Wakefield joined Janet Black of Designs at the Flower Show at Fryeburg Fair on Friday. Renee designed at four shows throughout the day. This was her first designing show.

Carl and Llona K. Meaux of Duluth, Ga., returned home on Monday after visiting with her parents, Earlon and Mary Keniston for several days. They attended the Fryeburg Fair on Tuesday and Mary accompanied them. On Wednesday, with Earlon and Mary, they enjoyed a trip around the mountains. On Thursday, they left to visit with longtime friends, the Whites in Boothbay Harbor. They returned to Bethel on Saturday and left again on Sunday to visit with the Bob Berubes in Lisbon Falls, before their flight on Monday.

On our arrival home from Fryeburg Fair, Bob and I were visited by our granddaughter, Josie and Daryl Hannon from Jericho, Vt., with Daryl's parents, Brian and Joy Hannon from New Zealand.

There will be a Craft Fair on Oct. 23 at the Woodstock School from 9 a.m. to 3 p.m. The cost per table is $10. For more information or to rent table, call 665-2211 or e-mail wakefiem@sad44.org.

A Hunters Breakfast, put on by the Fifth Grade at Woodstock Elementary School, will be held from 4 to 10 a.m. on Oct. 30 at the American Legion Hall in Locke Mills. This will be a fundraiser for their trip to Boston in the spring. For further information, call Missy Wakefield at 665-2211.

Ginny Walker spent the Columbus Day weekend with Joan and John Gatcombe in Waldoboro. While there they visited Owl's Head Car and Plane Museum.

Gilead

by Lin Chapman

A meeting of the Gilead Planning Board will be held on Oct. 18, at the Town Hall beginning at 7 p.m. Please contact Jack Pucak at 836-2729 regarding applications, forms and meeting information.

This is the last reminder for the Potluck Supper to be held at the Town Hall on Oct. 16 at 5:30 p.m. Please bring either a hot dish, salad or dessert to share with your neighbors. Get together and celebrate the last event of the Bicentennial year. The next venture is the formation of the Gilead Historical Society, so this is a good time to let the committee know if you have any interest in joining.

The Bicentennial Committee has received the "blessing of the selectmen" to create the Gilead Historical Society. The selectmen are very much behind having a group that will continue to preserve the history of the town.

Steve McLain stopped by Saturday and visited. He said that he had heard from his son, Capt. Stephen McLain of Ft. Sill, Okla. Stephen is in Dallas, Texas, this week doing some final training for his next assignment.

Sunday was a beautiful day to enjoy a trip down the Androscoggin River. Several canoes were put into the river at the Gilead boat launch for the trip to Bethel and some had started out in Shelburne, N.H.

West Bethel

by Lorrie Hoeh

What a stretch of beautiful fall weather we've been having. The Fryeburg Fair certainly benefited from eight warm, sunny days, if the Saturday evening traffic was any indication. It took me 45 minutes to get from the parking lot near the Swans Hill Road exit to the other end of the fair. There was total gridlock, with cars arriving and leaving, to and from every parking area and side street, as well as from both directions on Route 5. I certainly had an enjoyable week of demonstrating spinning in the Farm Museum, and I met and talked with people from as far away as New Zealand and as close as Bethel.

The Westleighs and Pivins had a birthday celebration over the weekend for Laura Pivin, who just turned 19. Laura was home from her classes at USM for the occasion. Sister Annie has been playing field hockey at Telstar this fall. The team will have played their last game, against Boothbay, this Wednesday. I hope the season ended with a win.

The Rev. Earl Bell and wife Marilyn returned last Tuesday from a vacation in Hawaii. (I'm jealous!) They arrived at the West Bethel Church on Sunday clad in a Hawaiian shirt and a muumuu, made of matching prints. They were also wearing their live-flower leis, which they have carefully preserved by stowing them in the refrigerator. Alo-o-ha!

Jane Hosterman reports that she ran into Jonathan Stowell recently. Jonathan grew up in West Bethel and is married to a daughter of Arthur and Ruth Gilbert. He now lives in Massachusetts and was in town for his 40th reunion at Gould, which took place weekend before last.

My husband Mike relates that the brook trout have begun to spawn in the East Branch of the Pleasant River, some of which runs behind our property. The little male brookies sport a bright red streak on their undersides, looking very colorful in their reproductive "plumage." Mike watched a cormorant that sat in a tree and swooped down to pick off the spawning trout. It's unusual to see a cormorant on such a little stream; blue herons, yes, but cormorants are expected on larger rivers or ponds.

Birds are scarce so far at the feeders, probably because there is so much other food available to them right now. Heaven knows we have enough weed seeds around, and a mosquito or two as well. We have spotted a yellow-bellied sapsucker feeding. We think we had a nesting pair this summer.

On Sunday afternoon, Mike and I attended a performance of "The Woman in Black" at the Public Theatre in Lewiston. It was a properly scary story for this pre-Halloween time, and very well produced and acted.

If you haven't ever sampled the Public Theatre's offerings, I recommend them highly. It is professional theater, reasonably priced, and within easy driving distance. We've been subscribing for a number of years and have enjoyed the plays immensely.

Please call or write with your news: 836-3011; dhoeh@megalink.net.

Andover

by Joan Stinson-Carney

There is an old saying about there is many a slip 'twix the cup and the lip, and it seems that we have made one. The Andover Historical Society's Open House was held in September, not as I was told, in October.

So, even though it's all over, you can still purchase Christmas presents by contacting one of the society's members.

Sorry about that.

It does my heart good not to have to offer my condolences to anybody this week. Andover sure has had its share this year.

As you all probably know by now, I will no longer be a selectman after Oct. 31. Yup, as my son Tom says, "very fitting, the witch will be leaving on Halloween." I am saddened to have to do this, but sort of excited to be moving back to Boston.

Good news though, three residents have taken out nomination papers. You can vote for your choice for my replacement on Nov. 2, when you cast your vote for president. Needless to say, I will miss a lot of you, and miss writing this column every week. I will write my last column for the Nov. 4 edition.

One thing I won't miss is the winter weather that is just around the corner. Of course it snows in Boston, but thank heaven for the MBTA. Out of the twelve winters I have been back, I went off the road ten times, once hitting four trees, and yes, I was going slowly. I hate driving in the snow, shoveling the snow, walking in the snow, anything to do with snow, period.

Edna Hilton has been visiting with relatives this week. My mother and I got to play a game of "hoof and mouth" with her and her niece, Joanne Palmer. It was fun even if Edna and Joanne won. I should probably explain "hoof and mouth." It is really a card game called hand and foot, and is loosely based on Canasta. It is a lot of fun, and quite addictive even though no money is involved. If you don't know how to play, get someone to teach you; it will make the winter pass quicker.

The East Andover Community Club held their monthly meeting today. Lorena Simmons was the hostess.

Please, if you haven't already registered to vote, then on Nov. 2, vote.

Every vote counts, and if you are a woman, just think of the sacrifices other women made so that you would have the privilege to do so. I know I'm really harping on this but it really is a good thing to be able to vote.

Oh, by the way — Go Red Sox, Yankees, well you know.

Upton

Peak coloring of foliage occurred last weekend. All the mountains and valleys were ablaze in the various autumn hues. The warm, golden weather cooperated making it enjoyable for all. A cold front passed through Sunday night reminding us that the good weather could not last. Monday morning found furnaces and woodstoves doing their intended jobs.

Mary Davis called Sunday morning and we gabbed about the beauty of the trees and the lake. Granddaughter Emma Davis, age 9, visited Mary and Larry. Baily Davis scored the winning goal in the field hockey game between Telstar and Hall Dale. Both Shea and Baily Davis are good athletes. Mary's daughter, Perdita Largesse, celebrated her birthday with them. Pizza and cake were on the menu. Perdita and Mike's son Mark was ecstatic at obtaining tickets to Sunday's Patriots game.

Liz Stanczyk, Evelyn Kenney, Sue Nelson, Sandy Wixom and yours truly attended the Blue Mountain Fair at Sunday River on Saturday. We visited a yard sale on the Sunday River Road and obtained some objects we couldn't live without.

The Columbus Day weekend has been a busy one. A group of six attended the October Fest at Attitash. The "Oompa" Band, the food and the lively entertainment were wonderful. The setting in the White Mountains was very pleasing.

Sue and Dick Angvine had a very special visit from their youngest grandchild, Adam, Larry Angvine, his Mom Laurel and her Mom Naomi Lary. Sue and Dick have harvested their extensive garden, canning and freezing goodies for the winter. The cold snap last week wiped out the tomato crop all over town. We can't complain, the tomatoes have never survived this long.

The Casey's have many large and small pumpkins found after all the vegetables froze. Next week we won't have a leaf left.

The Way I See It

by Sharon Bouchard

Sharon Bouchard's column is published by special arrangement with the Advertising Department

This is such a nice time of the year. The trees, especially the oaks and maples are putting on quite a show with spectacular colors.

A drive in the country to witness Mother Nature's colorful display would be a pleasant experience indeed, if it weren't for the other colorful displays created by all those political campaign signs littering the roadsides.

The nighttime temperatures may be getting pretty cool this time of the year, but the political season is really getting hot.

Everywhere you go there are campaign signs in quite an array of colors, some of them on the garish side sticking out of the ground. It's almost like a fall harvest of a different sort. I guess in some ways it is. Some of the candidates will flourish and some of them won't be quite ready for picking come Election Day.

The television and radio airways are bombarded with messages approved by the politicians and ignored by most of the voters. Pretty soon most of the newspapers with advertisements that most of us probably won't read.

There are a lot of political debates taking place too. The debates would be a great forum for the voters to really understand the issues and just where the candidates stand on them, but it seems to me that rather than actually answer the questions, they use the time to intercept campaign sound bites that don't really tell us anything.

A lot of the debate time is spent slinging mud at each other instead of providing the voters with true answers of their positions. I guess, as the saying goes, the best defense is a good offense, but I'd really like to know the candidates' points of view about the issues.

Now the telephone polls and surveys have started. Every other day I get a call from one group or another asking if I plan to vote for Candidate A or Candidate B. It's really no one's business how I plan to vote, but I'm usually polite and answer the questions.

I have come to the conclusion that the reason the polls show such a high number of undecided voters in this country is because people don't care to share their political choices with some anonymous telemarketer.

...In his opinion, the pharmaceutical companies should all be controlled by people over age 65...

I received a call the other night that I found a bit humorous and a lot annoying. The person calling had a very strong accent that I believe was Indian as in from India. Rule #1 for telephone surveys on the American political system, make sure the caller can speak English well enough that the voters can understand the questions.

This particular survey was pertaining to the Presidential race and the answer to each question was multiple-choice. The break down was "very favorable," "somewhat favorable," "a little favorable," "somewhat unfavorable," or "very unfavorable."

I found this very unfavorable because I cannot answer questions to political issues with one or two words. I feel the need to expound on every issue and the caller was obviously not listening to my points of view.

The big question finally came as to who I would vote for and the answer options were "very likely," "somewhat likely," "unlikely," "somewhat unlikely," or "very unlikely."

When asked about Candidate A I said I would sooner cut off my right hand than vote for Candidate A. My humorless caller responded with, "So your answer is very likely, somewhat likely, unlikely, somewhat unlikely or very unlikely?"

Apparently there is no place on their computer program format to put "Voter would sooner cut off right hand than to vote for Candidate A." I would also surmise that the caller didn't want to assume that my answer was the same as very unlikely and needed to hear me say it.

My husband fielded a call recently that was a survey regarding prescription drugs and what roll, if any, they will have in the Presidential election. The answer options were similar to the ones I had previously dealt with.

Some of the questions were about specific drugs and would he feel safe taking them if prescribed by a doctor. I could sense Henry's frustration by the tone in which he answered the questions. He finally had enough and told the caller that the survey was stupid, a person could not honestly answer questions about drugs they did not take and further more, the pharmaceutical companies should be prohibited from contributing to any political campaigns. In fact, in his opinion, the pharmaceutical companies should all be controlled by people over age 65.

I would have to guess that the survey taker had also had enough of Henry and politely thanked him for his time and hung up. I have a hunch that Henry's survey results were promptly deleted from the system.

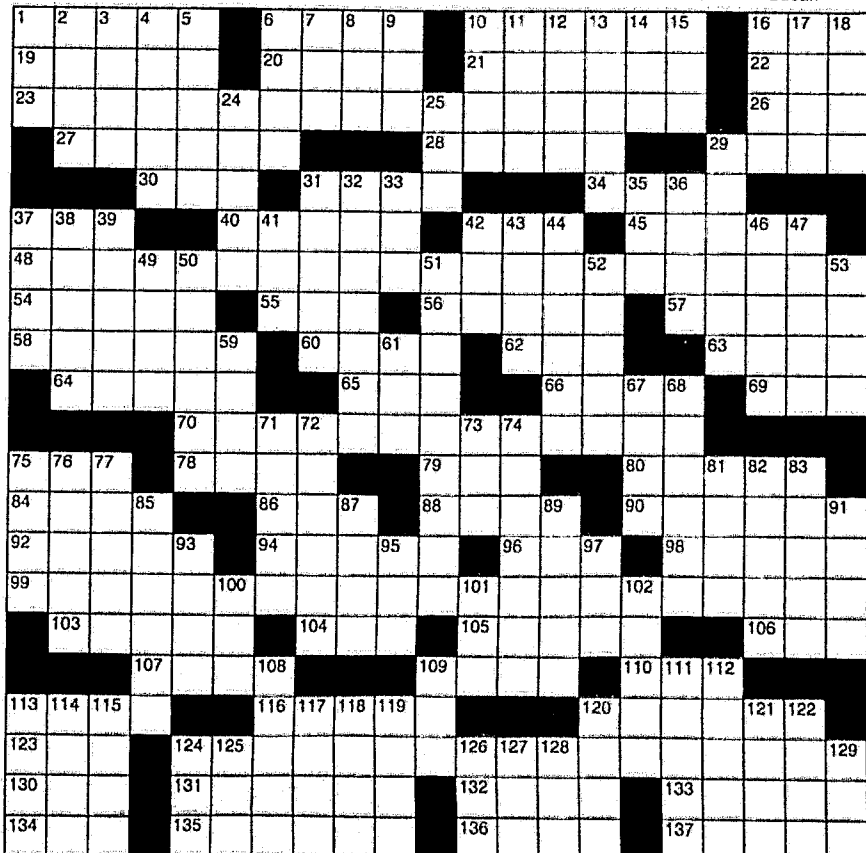

In a few weeks the elections will be over and the debates, advertisements and telephone surveys will come to quick end.

In spite of all the campaign rhetoric and the petty annoyances, the American political system and the peoples' right to vote are freedoms that I cherish. I'm Sharon L. Bouchard and I approve this message and the way I see it on election day I am "very likely" to be one of the first in line to cast my vote.

took advantage of the good weather to kayak up the lake.

The Bull Moose was filled to capacity Saturday night. "Kathy's" good cooking can't be beat. The Stratton Family had eight members at one table. Familiar faces appear every weekend.

The fall bird migration is in full swing. Our first Canada jay appeared on Sunday. The elusive partridge appears only when no gun is present.

While Ginny and Diane Williamson were relaxing in their yard chairs, a very small deer came out of the woods, took an apple and went back where it came from, never to be seen again.

Every time I think that the geese have left, I wake the next day to a honking, noisy flock in the cove. Why should they leave with the beautiful balmy days still with us.

Every year, for twenty-five years, we have had three Canada jays come in October and stay till March. Only one has shown up so far. Maybe he was a "scout." The Canada jay is again the "Bird of the Week."

We were happy to hear that Aldo French is well again. Liz and Walt Stanczyk were his Monday guests at Forest Lodge on Rapid River. What a lovely place to be in early October.

Happy Birthday to Simone Lavalley and Perdita Davis Largesse.

Nancy Kimball came home Oct. 8 and is doing very well now. She has a slight limp, but otherwise is well.

Donna Curtis retired from her post office job the end of September. Jackie Libby is now filling the job.

Arlene Harrington was in Greenville Oct. 8-10. She rode up with Jennifer Merrill of Andover and her two great-granddaughters. They had a lovely weekend. Arlene said the leaves were pretty well gone up there.

Alder River Grange held a regular meeting on Oct. 8 with eight members and three visitors present. Being the month of October, all members present had to dress in costume.

We were a weird looking group.

Alder River Grange will host Oxford Pomona on Nov. 3.

On Nov. 12, Alder River Grange will host a three-point meeting and Pleasant Valley may join us for a public talk on the 911 system. This is to be given by two operators who answer the calls. This talk will be what you need to tell the person who answers and what 911 is not. If you wish to attend, it will be at 7:30 p.m. or soon after.

Alder River supper schedule is: Harvest Supper on Oct. 23 and the Turkey Supper on Nov. 13. Any veteran will have a free turkey supper. Adults are $6 and under 13 are $3.

I guess our beautiful weather is going. I can't complain. Have a nice week.

God Bless the Troops.

I may have mentioned that Snuffy got too close to a skunk in our barn. I never saw the skunk, but it was easy to tell that Snuffy did. Phew! Now, in the past we have tried just about all the recipes for removing "eau de skunk" from a dog, and none of them work really well. Bathing him in tomato juice was somewhat effective, but not totally. We also tried Scope mouthwash before, but that seemed to only reduce the odor a little. Somebody gave Mona a "sure fire" de-skunk remedy, which they swore by.

This one is a mixture of Scope mouthwash and Massengill's douche stuff. So, Mona tried that one. First she hitched Snuffy to a post, so he couldn't get away. Then she hosed him down to thoroughly wet his fur. Then she applied a whole bottle of Scope and a whole package of douche (three small bottles) mixed together and scrubbed him down with that. For awhile, that worked pretty "good." Snuffy smelled okay, as long as you didn't get into a confined space with him; then you could smell a bit of skunk. A day later, Snuffy smells pretty bad again. I'm not sure whether the effect of the "de skunk remedy" wore off or if the dog got too close to another skunk. As they say, "Some days are diamonds, and some days are stones."

There are still a few observations about our Alaska trip that I'd like to publicize. The first is that it is a long way up there from here. We put almost 12,500 miles on the truck between the time we left on July 16 and when we returned on Aug. 28.

The second is that, with the price of gasoline as it is this year, it is expensive to pull a trailer to Alaska and back. We put about $2,500 into the pickup's gas tank on the trip. The third is that although the Alcan Highway has been paved its entire length more than once, much of the sections in the Yukon and Alaska remain a challenge. That is, the frost heaves are really active there, and it is a continuous battle to re-work, re-smooth and repave the travel lanes.

There are numerous 10-mile sections under construction in the summer months. There are also uncounted miles of tortured surface that give you the "bucking bronco" feel if you exceed 35 mph through them.

As we were traveling back eastward through the Yukon a few hundred miles from Alaska, at one stop Mona noticed that our trailer hitch "didn't look right." Sure enough, when I looked, I could see that the hitch was bent downward at an angle of 20 or 25 degrees. Crawling under the truck, I could see that the hitch was okay, but it was breaking away from the truck frame, apparently from all the jouncing over the frost heaves.

Rather wistfully, I thought perhaps we could drive slowly on to the next town where we could get it fixed. We drove on just three or four miles, and I decided I better check on the hitch. Good thing! By now, the hitch was hanging down by about 45 degrees. It would break off altogether with another good jounce or two. Fortunately, there was a large gravel pit just a quarter of a mile, or so, down the road, and we eased in there. As it was late in the afternoon, we set up camp right there.

Early next day, Mona and I left Joe, Peg and Snuffy there with the trailer and drove 110 miles to Haines Junction, Yukon, arriving there about 9 a.m. We found a body shop just opening up for the day. The owner said he was busy until about 12:30 p.m., and he could get to my truck about then, so we decided to wait.

By now, we had stopped at a couple other places in smaller towns and discovered that most of them apparently keep their own hours. They open at 9 or 10 a.m. and stay open until 9 or 10 p.m. because the sun is still shining until after 10 p.m.

I guess in the winter they shorten their hours when it is dark most of the time; besides, there are no tourists around then, except for maybe a few snowmobile riders. At any rate, the truck was ready by about 3 p.m., and we got back to the gravel pit by supper-time.

Hi readers. I hope you are enjoying these nice, pretty, sunny days.

We did get a good frost on Tuesday though. At 5 a.m. it looked like snow on the car. A good thing I covered the geraniums, but must get them in from now on.

On Sept. 27, Albert took a tumble from the steps by the kitchen door. He got a few scrapes and bruises but no broken bones. I guess he will survive.

members present. President Paul Hersey opened the meeting about 6:30 p.m. There was much discussion and planning done about the upcoming charter night that is to be held at Gould Academy's Ordway Hall. This has been arranged by Jim and Lucia Owen. This will take place on Nov. 20, and 5:30 to 6:30 p.m. will be social hour, with the charter night dinner and program 6:30 to 9:30 p.m.

There will be a raffle and 50/50. It sounds like a fun night and hope many people will be there. After the meeting there were desserts and coffee for the members present. There was also discussion on when to have the meeting night, as some cannot be there on the third Wednesday of every month. As of now, the next meeting will be at the Stoneham Community Room on Oct. 21, from 6 to 9:30 p.m. There will also be desserts and coffee by members.

Albany

by Dana & Sheila Dyke

Greetings and hello from Albany Township. Nice fall weather we're having. Boy! The view from our place is just outstanding — with the mountain views dotted with reds, oranges and yellows from the changing leaves, the bright blue skies we've been having, and gorgeous sunshine. Cannot imagine living anywhere else and having such beauty to gaze at on a daily basis.

What a day Saturday turned out to be for us. Sheila and Dyana headed off to town to get some water, when not far down Vernon Street they stopped for what they thought at first was a cocker spaniel puppy — turned out to be a bit older than that. The poor dog was wandering around the road, and didn't seem to understand how dangerous the road really was. They stayed with him for about 20 minutes, asking passersby if it was their dog, trying to find out how to contact the animal control officer (his number is unlisted). We also want to thank the gentleman who stopped and took time from his schedule to check on neighboring homes for the dog's owner. When we came back through, the dog was gone (we left thinking that perhaps our presence was keeping him from going home). We hope he made it home safely. He was a very friendly dog who seemed to want to go for a ride very much.

At the same time, another gentleman was following what appeared to be an injured hawk down the road. What a beautiful creature. While Sheila stood on the side of the road, the predatory bird flew within a few feet of her, skimming over the top of the road. She would then light to the side of the road to rest before resuming her flight up-street. Dyana was kicking herself for not bringing her camera (which she normally has on her).

We also want to thank our wonderful friends and family for the Baby Shower held at the Church. Sheila was very much surprised by the party. It was obvious that a lot of thought, love and consideration went into the planning and execution of the event. The gifts received are so greatly appreciated and loved. So many of them were created by skilled and loving hands, and others purchased with obvious care and consideration of what a baby would need and want. Thank you again. You truly have no idea how much we appreciate it and how overcome Sheila was by this gesture of friendship.

The Improvement Association will be holding a Yard Sale down at the bottom of the hill at the old Town Hall this Saturday and Sunday starting at 9 a.m. Please note no early birds. This will probably be the last yard sale of the season.

Best wishes for a happy and safe weekend and week. God Bless and Keep!

North Newry

by Gil Seeley

Thought for the week: "Health is the thing many people never think of until they've lost it. Then, and not until then, do they really appreciate the fact that without good health it is difficult indeed to enjoy the other things they want out of life."

Wilma Stewart has returned home in Unity after spending a week here in North Newry with her sister, Karlene Bachelder. They went to see Ras in Cove's Edge, Damariscotta, one day. Went shopping, had lunch at different spots, etc. Saw about 15 wild turkeys in a field one day on the way home. We hope to see her again before winter sets in.

Call to worship was held Sunday morning at 9 a.m. at the Newry Community Church with Pastor Rodney Hanscom at the pulpit and daughter Nancy at the organ. Thought for the day by Sue Wright, "Don't despair — share." Scripture readings by the faithfuls. The message of the day was: "Thanks to God," from Psalm 86:4. "Rejoice the soul of thy servant; for unto thee o' Lord do I lift up my soul." A prayer followed, Holy Communion, The Lord's Prayer, Hymn 116, benediction, postlude, amen.

West Paris

by Bertha DeHaas

Last Saturday dawned bright and clear, so it was the perfect day to tour the McLaughlin Foundation to get spectacular photos of the fall flowers. As Mr. McLaughlin and my dad were good friends, we often went there in the different seasons. Guess that was how my love for flowers was born — way back then. Bernard and my dad, Bill Witham, had many long talks about the growing of flowers and shrubs. When Dad developed the beautiful, deep red gladiola, which he named "Bill's red," he gave several of his bulbs to Bernard for his "glad" garden. To this day, I thoroughly enjoy walking through these gorgeous gardens, in any and all seasons. From Bernard's lilacs in the spring, until the last sedum and chrysanthemum in the fall, it has the ability to fill one with awe. If one looks at the beauty, that ever abounds, with their heart as well as their eyes, they understand God's great creation and see what He has put here for mankind to observe and enjoy. Have always enjoyed the beauty and solitude of this magnificent garden. Thank you, Bernard McLaughlin, for your endeavors in bringing such beauty to the community that will last for a lifetime or two at least. It is a truly magnificent heritage. Thanks, too, to Lee Dasser and her crew for all the work they do to maintain these wonderful gardens.

On Monday, we held our agriculture program at Franklin Grange 124 in Bryant Pond. We were fortunate to have Russell Yates do "Bessie the Heifer" for us, a piano solo by Althea Fish, whistling by Dot Canwell and a skit about potatoes done by Peggy Blake and Russell Yates, among other things. This was a good evening.

On Tuesday evening, Oxford Pomona 2 met at Franklin Grange in Bryant Pond with a 6:30 p.m. supper to begin the evening. This was followed by the Fifth Degree (the Pomona degree), with James Owens, State Grange overseer as Pomona degree master. It all went well.

Also on Tuesday, the West Paris Senior Citizens (a group of 12) went on their annual foliage tour of New Hampshire and Maine, stopping for luncheon at the newly rebuilt "Northlands Restaurant" in New Hampshire. Those going on this trip were Pat and Fred Breame, Elsie Haynes, Jackie Stevens, Anna Swan, Beryl and Fred Oja, Evelyn Chamberlain, Susie Abbott, Ruby Silver, Lena Dean and Fran Haney. Absent were Joyce Lamb and Bertha DeHaas due to a previous commitment and family illness. Understand the color in New Hampshire was spectacular and a couple weeks ahead of us here in Maine. Thank you Pat and Fred for taking over the tour for me, also the delicious seafood chowder and raspberry pie you brought home to me.

On Saturday, Oct. 23, there will be a pumpkin festival held for all SAD17 students at the OHCHS. The school has a pumpkin for every student coming to the school. These pumpkins need to be taken home, carved and returned to the school or the festival. The school could win a karaoke machine. The purpose of this festival is to earn money for a scholarship for an Oxford Hills student.

There is a new program through the school called "Destination Imagination," by district coordinator Sara Reis. This will be held on Oct. 19 at 6:30 p.m. at the Guy E. Rowe School library. For more information, please call Sara at 743-8165 or e-mail sarareis1952@hotmail.com.

qThere is a new "Sign Out" program now in effect, so please sign your children out at 3:05 p.m. when they are picked up at school. This has been created to keep a record of where these students go and with whom, if they do not ride the school bus. With many students leaving with adults, it is difficult to keep track of them all. This is to provide greater safety measures for your youngsters. Thank you for your cooperation.

Kathy Beich will again run the annual fall fundraiser. This will begin on Oct. 15 and the orders must be in by Oct. 29, to have the items by Thanksgiving. The school makes 50-percent profit on this.

October appears to be a very busy month indeed.

The annual Harvest Supper at West Paris Grange will be held at the Grange Hall, 4 Church Street, West Paris, Saturday, Oct. 16, from 5 to 6 p.m. The price is $6 for adults and $3 for children under age 12.

West Paris Grange will hold their annual fall craft and food sale on Saturday, Oct. 23, from 9 a.m. to 1:30 p.m. at their hall, 4 Church Street. Luncheon at noon with chowder, hot dogs, sandwiches and pie. There will be crafts, plants, vegeta-

The flu shot clinic will be held at West Paris Grange Hall from 11 a.m. to 1 p.m. on Tuesday, Oct. 26. Come get immunized before flu season starts.

The West Paris Grange Rabies Clinic will be held on Saturday, Oct. 30, from 10 a.m. to 12 noon. Come bring your pet to get the rabies shot to protect them from rabid animals.

Fall with its crisp mornings and spectacular color has truly arrived. Have taken some really beautiful pictures this past week.

I wish to thank Leah Deegan, Olive Risko, Sylvia Dunham and all of their crew, Shirley, Ken and all the others up at Jackson-Silver American Legion for all their hard work setting up the hall for the Richard G. Felt benefit supper. Also, thanks to all the members of Franklin Grange 124, West Paris Grange 298, all the relatives and friends who cooked and cooked and cooked, so that this supper could be a success. Also, would like to thank the members of the Richard Felt Band and Pete Andrews of the Parisians for the really beautiful music you provided for folks' listening and dancing pleasure. Also wish to thank everyone who helped tear down after supper and those who did dishes. It was a tremendous help and greatly appreciated. Would also like to thank all of the people and businesses that donated door prizes, also Ruby Coolidge, who made a coat and sold chances Thursday night to help.

Am going to ask all of you who have news for me to put in the paper to please call me or bring it to me by Wednesday of each week so I can get the news in on Thursday. The number is 674-3046.

The Ring-McKeen Post 151 American Legion will again entertain our Girl and Boy Scouts on the evening of Tuesday, Oct. 26. Will write more on this next week. The scouts will be asked to do something very special this year for patriotism — what it means to them and maybe something to send to "our own" town boys who are over in Iraq.

Please be aware of children running about, biking, skateboarding and rollerblading as it gets darker earlier.

See you next week.

The third annual PTA Woodstock Craft Fair will be Oct. 23, 9 a.m. to 3 p.m. Tables are available for $10 each. There will be a Chinese raffle and bake sale.

Oct. 22 will be Grandparents Day at Woodstock School.

There will be a hunters' breakfast at the Legion Hall at Locke Mills to raise money for the fifth grade to go to Boston. This will be Oct. 30. Cost is $5 each. Hope they will have a good turnout at all of their activities.

Albert Curtis Sr. and I went up to Eustis over to Parlin Pond to Greenville where we had lunch and down through by my son Walter Curtis' place. Stopped to see them. So had quite a day but a wonderful time. Thanks, Al. Marie Curtis had to work so couldn't go with us.

We've had enough frost this year, so far, to ruin the flowers by the Woodstock sign at Andrews Corner.

This past week I took a flying trip to Stephens Memorial Hospital by ambulance. The hospital and Tri-Town Ambulance were very, very prompt and professional. I'm okay now. I appreciate everyone's concern.

Frank Frazer's sister and brother-in-law from Massachusetts are visiting here on the hill for a few days.

Beverly Dayton spent some time with her mother, Claribel Poland, and family this past week. Beverly lives in Georgia.

Evelyn and Jim Dunn, Bob and Alberta Harlow spent a day at Fryeburg Fair, along with many others I hear.

Larry Poland had his hand operated on for the second time recently. We wish him the best.

Vote — be sure to vote in the November election. You can get an absentee ballot if you can't make it to the polls. You do not have to have a reason to do this, just call or go to your town office.

West Paris

by Joyce Lamb

A warm, sunny week found a lot of us at the Fryeburg

Fair. Days were warm but the evenings were a bit chilly. That is to be expected, so we go with winter outerwear and even long johns. My fleecelined, high winter sneakers kept my feet comfortable.

Beverly and Steve Stevens were at the fairgrounds for two weeks, for she works with concessions and is especially busy in the office before and during the fair.

Sayward and Cynthia Lamb spent the week at the fair. He had a booth in the woodworking building and exhibited and demonstrated his skill at woodcarving.

Milton and Eleanor Inman worked in the camping and parking areas at the fair. It was good to see a familiar face when I was trying to find a place for my car.

I spent two days at the fair with my two sisters-in-law, Jeanne Whittemore and Elaine Blossom. Jeanne takes her RV over for ten days, and I slept there with them for one night. This was their 17th year camping at the fair. There were over 3,000 campers there. It has become so large that one can get lost, and I did lose them for a while.

At the West Paris Universalist Church on Oct. 17, the Rev. Joy Gasta will speak on "Families Within Families. Coffee hour follows. All are welcome.

The cat bed I bought for Buffy a year ago gets a lot of use. He naps during the day in it and sometimes at night. I wondered if he would use it and he does.

On Thursday, Oct. 14 (today), Whitman Memorial Library will feature Edwin Howe at 10 a.m. It will be on Alaska, including a visit to a working gold mine. This is open to the public and there is no charge. All welcome.

The Woodstock Elementary School will hold their third annual craft fair on Saturday, Oct. 23, from 9 a.m. to 3 p.m. at the school. There are tables still available for $10 and donations are welcome for their raffle. For more information, call 665-2211.

The fifth grade at the Woodstock Elementary School is holding a hunters' breakfast on Saturday, Oct. 30, at the American Legion Hall, Locke Mills, for their class trip money. Serving time is 4 to 10 a.m. Cost is $5 each. For more information call 665-2211.

Services at the Baptist Church are Sunday School and Adult Bible Fellowship at 9:15 a.m., worship service at 10:30 a.m., choir practice at 5 p.m. and evening service at 6 p.m. Wednesday evening at 6:30 is prayer meeting. Thursday morning at 9 is Ladies Bible time. Oct. 15 to 17 is Missionary Conference with Carl and Nikki Hodson, Venezuela, Baptist Mid Missions and Ben and Wilma Sanders, Christian Law Association.

Saturday morning at 7 on Oct. 16 is Men's Prayer Breakfast and 5:30 p.m. a potluck supper. Meetings are at 7 p.m. both Friday and Saturday. Quarterly business meeting is Oct. 19 at 6:30 p.m.

The Woodstock Extension will meet at the Town Annex on Wednesday, Oct. 20, at 10:30 a.m. They will be working on projects for open house with Elena Noyes. Brown bag lunch.

Franklin Grange 124 will meet on Monday, Oct. 18, at 7 p.m.

Why are the Republican signs "Rob Cameron for Maine Senate" being taken down at night? Does not the person or persons doing this know there is a large court fine if found doing this?

News from Mrs. Nieberle: Today I met Elaine from Elaine's Shop on Route 26 across from Felt Road. Very bubbly personality and so happy to be living in Maine. She and Pete have been here almost two years. Their son, wife and grandchild are also moving here to live in Bryant Pond.

Mr. Chase's daughter will be building a house here on Route 26. She will be building across from the Caret's up in the woods.

Sorry to hear Richard Felt hurt his arm fixing his hay baler.

Met the couple from the log house on Dudley Road. They were very nice. They are the Dillions and have a little girl. They have been here for over a year.

Joan Putman was in the stand today. We had a discussion about acorn squash. We all have our favorite and it seems as the buttercup is the most popular. I cook the buttercup in the microwave. I brush it off, take off the stem (that is a must) put four or five knife slits in it. Depending on the size, but most generally cook it on high for five minutes. Take it out, cut in half, scoop out the seeds and taste to see if you need to put it in for five minutes more. When done, add whatever, butter, cinnamon, nutmeg, maple syrup, honey, brown sugar, any of them.

From

Oxford County Democrats

Oxford County Democratic Chairperson Cathy Newell recently issued the following statement responding to attacks by the Republican Senate candidates in Oxford County on their opponents for participating in the Maine Clean Elections Law. These attacks attempt to create a negative impression of the Maine Clean Elections Law and intimate that the Democrats are doing something wrong in opting for public financing the system.

According to Newell, "The Maine Clean Elections system of financing elections was approved in referendum by the voters of Maine and allows candidates for the Legislature to be free of any obligations to corporate donors, special interests or political action committees. The Democratic Senate candidates, Sen. Bruce Bryant and Marge Medd, are running as Clean Elections candidates, agreeing to accept strict spending limits, and accepting only $5 qualifying contributions from supporters.

"The Republican Senate candidates, Cameron and Hastings, chose not to run as Clean Elections candidates in 2004. This means they are free to accept contributions from any corporation or political action committee — or to dip into their own personal bank accounts to fund their campaigns. In years past, for example, some Republican candidates for the state Senate have spent over $100,000 to get elected. The Clean Elections limit for State Senate is $16,791 and for House, $4,032.

"The people of Maine in passing the Maine Clean Elections Law said with a clear voice that limiting the raising and spending of money for political campaigns is essential to a responsible government. The Democratic candidates in Oxford County unanimously agree.

"As Clean Elections candidates, the individuals running as Democrats answer only to constituent voters and have limited budgets. You may notice fewer signs and more modest advertising by our candidates, and we hope you will realize that by accepting limits, our Clean Elections candidates are truly able to do the people's business."

Information regarding the Maine Clean Elections Law is available on the State of Maine Web site, www.maine.gov.

From the

Friends of Telstar High/Middle School

The Friends of Telstar will be holding their first parent meeting of the 2004-2005 school year. Our agenda includes updates on the following: Car Show, Scholarships, and our recent fundraiser, the Basket Bingo. Other items that will be discussed include bus driver appreciation, first-semester awards, and Halloween.

Come and join us on Tuesday, Oct. 19, from 6:30 to 8 p.m. in the Telstar library.

This will be a wonderful opportunity to meet our new middle school principal, Mr. Tomrose. Also, Mr. Lambert will be updating the group of the changes at Telstar. We hope to see you there.

From the

Bethel Historical Society's Regional History Center

The next lecture in the 2004 Bethel Historical Society series will feature Robert Spidell, Andover native currently residing in San Clemente, Calif., as the featured speaker on his native town, which this year observed the bicentenary of its incorporation. The lecture will be held on Thursday, Oct. 14 at the society's Dr. Moses Mason House meeting room, beginning at 7:30 p.m.

Spidell has spent years studying the history of Andover, and last year edited and published a popular book on Pynellis. The lecture is free and open to anyone interested in attending.

A dozen individuals are enrolled in the society's fall course, "Indian New England," which began on Oct. 7 and will continue for the next three Wednesdays at the O'Neil Robinson House. This course is being held in conjunction with this year's exhibit, "Molly Ockett and Her World."

Thirty more donors were added to the over 350 who have so far made gifts to the 2004 Bethel Historical Society Annual Fund to bring the total for the year to just under $18,000. Among the most recent are: Don and Eleanor Brooks, Bethel; Allen and Jackie Cressy, Bethel; Eve and John Crumpton, Oxford; Bob and Polly Davis, Bethel; Mark Freeman, Panama City, Fla.; Dave and Nancy Murphy, Bethel; Ken and Sally Ramage, Bethel; Martha Ricker, Bryant Pond; Doris Stengel, Wayne, N.J., in honor of Libby Shirreffs; Taylor Thompson and Valerie Uber, Jamaica Plain, Mass.; Murray Thurston, Bethel; Margaret Joy Tibbetts, Bethel, in memory of Mary Tibbetts Freeman; Dean and Priscella Walker, Bethel; William and Deborah Andrews, Newry; Mary Ann Ashcraft, Westminster, Md.; Tim Black, St. Johns, Mich.; Cheryl Goddard, Lisbon Falls, in honor of Florence Hastings; Mr. and Mrs. John Jacobsen, Jr., New City, N.Y.; Ron and Marguerite Kendall, Bethel. Much appreciation is expressed to all of the above for their generosity. Those wishing to make a tax-deductible gift to the society's 2004 Annual Fund should send it to the society at P.O. Box 12, Bethel, ME 04217-0012.

From the

Bethel Lions Club

The Bethel Lions Club has started its new year with many community service projects on the table. We meet the second and fourth Tuesdays of the month at Cross Roads Diner at 6:30 p.m.

We will be hosting an open house on Oct. 20, 7 p.m., at the Moses Mason House. Please feel free to come and find out what the Lions do in the community. Bring a friend or a spouse. The Bethel Lions cover the SAD44 area. For more information, please call Ed or Gert Friel at 824-2107.

We are looking for public places to place small cans for "Dimes for Diabetes," also collection boxes for used eyeglasses and hearing aids. These two items can be recycled to benefit the less fortunate. For more information, please call the above number.

Anyone in need of eyeglasses, please call Eldon Greenleaf at 824-2040.

From the

White Mountain National Forest

On Monday, Oct. 18, the New Hampshire Department of Transportation (NHDOT) will begin paving on the Kancamagus Scenic Byway (N.H. Route 112).

Paving will be concentrated near the Rocky Gorge Scenic Area (approximately nine miles west of Conway) on a newly relocated section of the Byway.

Due to the paving operations and road relocation, the Rocky Gorge parking lot will be closed beginning on Oct. 18. A temporary lot is expected to be opened in December to provide winter access to the Nanamocumuck Cross Country Ski Trail system.

Recently, the White Mountain National Forest installed a new footbridge spanning Rocky Gorge. The trail to Falls Pond has also been improved to allow for universal access.

The NHDOT will be continuing road reconstruction along the Byway through the fall of 2005 between Blackberry Crossing Campground (six miles west of Conway) and Passaconaway Campground (13.5 miles west of Conway). This project involves widening and straightening the road to improve the safety of motorists, pedestrians and bicyclists along the corridor.

The Kancamagus Highway was completed in 1959, linking the towns of Conway and Lincoln. This 34-mile section of N.H. Route 112 was designated a National Forest Scenic Byway in 1989 because of the views it provides of outstanding National Forest scenery.

For additional information, please contact the Saco District Ranger at (603) 447-5448.

New Mountain Trailhead
The Saco Ranger District of the White Mountain National Forest is scheduled to open the new South Moat trailhead and parking lot on Monday, Oct. 18. The new location is approximately one-half mile west of the existing trailhead on Passaconaway (Dugway) Road.

The White Mountain National Forest has relocated the southern 1.3 miles of the Moat Mountain Trail and constructed a trailhead parking area. The previous trailhead was accessed through private land. Increasing use of the trail has created parking and other hazards for both the landowners and trail users.

The Moat Mountain Trail is frequently used by hikers, mountain bikers and other recreation users. The trail traverses the exposed Moat Ridge providing numerous overlooks before reaching its northern end located at the Diana's Baths parking area on West Side Road.

For additional information, please contact Holly Jewkes at the Saco Ranger District at (603) 447-5448.

From the

Oxford Pomona Grange 2

On Oct. 6, twenty-six members of Oxford Pomona met at Franklin Grange in Bryant Pond. Also present was James Owens, who is the State Grange overseer and who traveled all the way from Bingham. He served as the master when the 5th (or Pomona) degree was conferred on Germaine Boothby of Lakeside Grange and George Palmer of Pleasant Valley Grange.

With the State Grange annual meeting coming up later this month in Bangor, it was necessary to select two delegates to represent this Pomona's interests at that time; they are Vickie Clark and Stanley Howe, the latter also being the State Grange historian. Russell Yates and Peggy Blake are the alternates and they are also representing Franklin Grange 124. Some of the resolutions to be presented at that time were discussed, one being the extra lights besides the regular headlights on cars that tend to blind the drivers of oncoming vehicles.

In other business, the Committee on Women's Activities agreed to make a donation to the Military Family Support Group. Also, Peggy Blake mentioned that she had not received an application for the scholarship for a long time. It was felt that the word needed to be gotten out about it. So, it is available to the child or grandchild of any Grange member. The applicant must have completed at least one semester of post-secondary education and be enrolled for the next semester. To apply, State Class C Championship at Natanis, Oct. 9: Telstar 320, Old Orchard Beach 334—Telstar won its first-ever State Class C Championship, defeating 10 other teams. The Rebels' team score of 320 was its best this season. Brady Chapman, Kyle Maines, Sean Caddigan and Errol Andrews combined for the winning score.

Mountain Valley Conference Championships at Natanis, Oct. 6: Telstar 344, Mt. Valley 353, Hall-Dale 363, Jay 366, Winthrop 367, Wiscasset 391, Boothbay 396, Carrabec 414, Madison 429, Monmouth 433, Georges Valley 470—Telstar's Brady Chapman had the top score of 78 as the Rebels won the MVC Championship. Sean Caddigan tied for fourth and Errol Andrews tied for fifth. The top three teams qualified to compete in the state championships.

High School Boys' Varsity Soccer

Telstar 4, Lisbon 0; Oct. 12— Telstar's Ryan Savage scored three goals and Jessica James one in a win over Lisbon. Terry Collins had two saves in goal.

Telstar 2, Monmouth 1; Oct. 9— Telstar's Blake Conrad and Ryan Savage each scored in a win over Monmouth. Terry Collins had two saves in goal.

Telstar 2, Winthrop 1 (OT); Oct. 7— Telstar's Matt Zinchuk scored both goals in an overtime win over Winthrop. The Rebels' Terry Collins had eight saves in goal.

Bridgton Academy 10, Gould 0; Oct. 5— The Bridgton Academy team came in with a very talented squad and open the scoring in the first two minutes of play. The Gould Academy Huskies then settled down and began to find some room to play in the midfield. Gould was able to maintain possession of the ball for long periods of time, but was not able to penetrate the Bridgton defense. Despite the score, it was a well-played game and will help the Gould Academy Huskies prepare for their next game against Proctor Academy on Oct. 13.

Hyde 3, Gould 0; Oct. 2— Ben Koopman, in goal for the Huskies, made several saves. Miles Spadone teamed up with Ian Seikman, Lewis Feuer, and Charles Parsons to create some good scoring opportunities for Gould.

High School Boys' J.V. Soccer

Gould 6, Holderness 3; Oct. 6— Gould's Marcus Mueller scored three goals and Yuji Kawanishi, Ji Ho Ha, and Randy Savage one each in a win over Holderness. Mueller and Fred Shin had assists.

High School Girls' Varsity Soccer

Gould 6; Hebron 2; Oct. 9— Goals were scored by Brittany Rogers (2) (one of which was scored directly off of a corner kick); Heather Kelleher (2); Marina Schachowsky (1); Suzi Jump (1). Notable play by Molly Fitzgerald and Brittany Rogers.

High School Girls' J.V. Soccer

Hebron 1, Gould 0; Oct. 9— Despite a loss, the Gould team played well and had twice as many shots on goal than Hebron.

Gould 3, New Hampton 0; Oct. 6— Gould beat New Hampton for the first time ever. Goal scorers were Tamara Isham (2) and Jen Guneyli (1).

High School Varsity Field Hockey

Telstar 3, Hall-Dale 2 (OT); Oct. 8— Telstar's Bailey Davis scored with four seconds remaining in double overtime as the Rebels defeated Hall-Dale. Mallory Brown and Jessie Farrington also scored, and Brown and Kayla Mill had assists. Stephanie Tripp and Heather Gionet combined for nine saves in goal.

Telstar 3, Mt. Valley 1; Oct. 6— Telstar's Mallory Brown, Stephanie Bennett and Kayla Mills all scored in a win over Mt. Valley. Megan Bailey and Kayla Mills had assists. Defensive play was led by Liz Rosenberg and Jillian Kimball. Stephanie Tripp shut out Mt. Valley in goal in the first half, and Heather Gionet had three saves in the second half. "We took 30 shots on goal, 22 on cage, which is an improvement on our game," said coach Gail Wight.

TMS Varsity Soccer

Telstar 7, Livermore Falls 0; Oct. 7— Telstar's Bryce Walker led the scoring with two goals. Patrick Gallagher sent one in from a defending position. Eva Thornton, Doug Costello, Peter Cowin and Arete Maselli also put one in. Assists by Frankie DelDuca, Kelsie Kuvaja and Tim Fifield. Good job on the defense by A.J. Hebert, Tucker Brown, Tim Fifield, Patrick Gallagher, James Kimball, Doug Costello and Jen Aldrich.

TMS 3; Dirigo 3; Oct. 5— Telstar's Doug Costello put in two great goals and Frankie DelDuca put in the other. Good defense, and an excellent job in goal by Alex Gundersen.

TMS J.V. Soccer

TMS 8, Livermore Falls 1; Oct. 7— Telstar's Ethan Damon and Michael MacKnight led the team with three goals and one assist each. Additional goals by Sawyer Barter and Joshua Bellingier. Assists from Ben Field, Jacob Berry, Samantha Southam, Sawyer Barter and Ridge Latham. Great offensive efforts from Ben Field, Dylan Ronan, Nic Kingsbury, Gavin Lee and Troy Murphy. Darren Jodrey played a superior game in goal with defensive effort from Tyler Aldrich, Alan Hadley and Andrew Gould.

TMS 3, Dirigo 1; Oct. 5— Telstar's Sawyer Barter led scoring with 2 goals and Michael MacKnight added a nice head ball goal. Great goal tending effort by Sawyer Barter and a shutout second half from Darren Jodrey. Super individual play also from Ethan Damon, Troy Murphy, Elek Pew, Keith Morin, Parker Thurston, Tyler Aldrich, Nic Stuer and Dylan Ronan.

TMS Varsity Field Hockey

Jay 4, Telstar 1; Oct. 5— Telstar's Whitney Mills scored on a pass from Abbey Gardner. Telstar played a great game against the undefeated team.

Telstar 0, Mt. Valley 0; Oct. 6— Telstar had many chances to score, but they couldn't get it past the Mountain Valley goalie. Excellent offensive effort by Whitney Mills. Telstar's defense had many great clears out of the circle and Brianna Douglass made many crucial saves.

TMS J.V. Field Hockey

Mt Valley 6, TMS Blue 0; Oct. 6— The TMS Blue team lost a tough game against Mt. Valley. The girls played hard, with two players leaving the field with injuries. In spite of several corners, the girls couldn't get the ball past their strong defensive team. Sam Tibbetts was credited with five saves in the cage. Several girls played new positions in an attempt to stop Mt. Valley's offense.

Jay 3, Telstar Blue 2; Oct. 5— The TMS Blue team played their best game of the season against Jay. Hanna Morin was the star on offense while Katie Gibson and Christina Morin each scored a goal both assisted by Niciana Walker.

Crescent Park School News

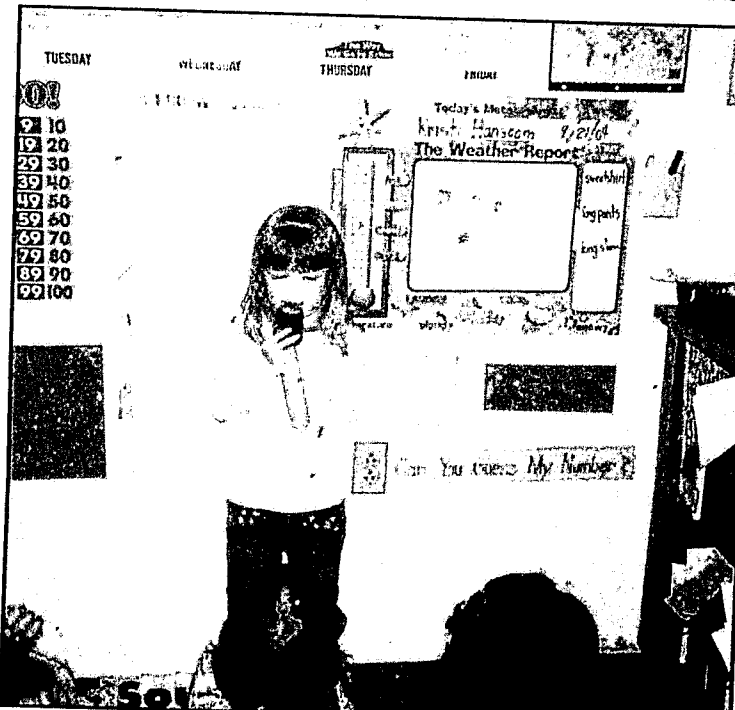

On Grandparents Day, students in Mrs. Salway's grade 1 class at CPS played an addition game with help from grandparents. Shown are Grampie and Grammie Gallant with grandson, Curtis Steele and classmate, Caleb Clarke.

Students in Mrs. Wight's third grade recently welcomed their grandparents into their classroom. Students shown here are working on a puzzle activity and a writing exercise with their grandparents.

First graders in Mrs. Salway's class at CPS have been writing and illustrating their own little books. Shown are authors Shylyn Buckman, Robert Crockett, and Ani Inman.

Kindergartener Kristi Hanscom, Tuesday's meteorologist, is pictured delivering the forecast incorporating the content areas of science (weather), literacy (role playing), and math (calendar).

Andover School News

Zoey Perham launches her rocket at Andover Elementary School. The 3rd and 4th grade students began their study of the solar system by building and launching model rockets.

The Andover and Woodstock kindergarten students went to Gibson's Apple Orchard on Thursday, September 30th. Pictured here are three Andover students: Taylor Merrill, Hunter Field-Nadeau and Sierra Gray.

Many ways to get around

Saturday started out dreary, but activities planned in the area went ahead — and were rewarded at midday with clearing weather. The Fall Foliage Fly-In (left) at the Bethel Airport included a demonstration of model aircraft. Among them was a jet, owned by Ray LaBonte of Ray and Robin's Hobby Shop of Westbrook. The craft, powered by a real jet turbine, flew at speeds over 200 mph and performed rolls and vertical climbs. Also on hand was Busch North Series race car #6, which has been driven by three-time series champion Andy Santerre. Sponsored by Joe Bessey, the car has raced at such tracks as Daytona and Talladega. In Andover (top right), horses and riders took part in several contests at the Ellis River Riders arena. Here, Darlene Campbell of Waterford competes in a timed race that required the riders to pick up a potato from the top of one barrel and drop it into a bucket on another barrel before racing for the finish line. At Sunday River Ski Resort (bottom right), 19 teams competed in the North American Wife-Carrying Championships. The winning team of Pete Knelsen and Amanda Richardson of Ontario completed the 278-foot course in a time of 1 minute, 17.7 seconds. Winning their weight class was this couple, Jeffrey and Gianna Durso-Finley of Lawrenceville, N.J. They were the first team with a combined weight of more than 350 pounds to cross the finish line.

contact Linona (Peggy) Blake at 194 High Street, West Paris 04289, or 674-3872 for an application.

Following the business, a program was presented by lecturer and state deputy Laura Hutchins. All sang "Shine on Harvest Moon," then had a roll call about what each likes or dislikes about fall. Most everyone very much liked the beautiful leaves but hated to see them leave us for so long and disliked the darkness coming so much earlier.

A skit was presented by Richard Felt, Russell Yates and Peggy Blake. Mystery March winners were Nina Grover, Bertha DeHaas and Vickie Clark with Bertha also winning the 50/50 drawing. Another song closed the program.

Resolutions of Respect were read for Audrey Hadley.

As Election Day will be on the usual November Pomona meeting date, it will be held the following day, Nov. 3, at Alder River Grange in East Bethel and will be preceded by the usual 6:30 p.m. supper, visitors to bring desserts.

From the

Andover Education Fund

In the spring of 1987, a meeting was held with the officers of the Andover Alumni Association and Robert Spidell. His proposal was to create a fund that would help with financial burdens on those going to college, and to encourage those to continue on who thought college was an impossible dream.

We have assisted 120 of Andover's students in their college or post secondary studies.

The board has regretfully accepted the resignation of Ed Witt as a member and secretary. Because of employment changes he and his family have relocated to the Fryburg area. Thank you, Ed, for the dedication and hard work you provided to this fund. You will be missed.

We are now into our annual fall campaign. The funding realized from this drive helps us insure future scholarships for our students. Thank you so much for your support, whether you are a newcomer or a continuing donor. All of us, the board, the students, and especially the parents, appreciate your support.

Listed here are donors who have contributed to date: Minnie Akers, Andover; Andover Wood Products/Ethan Allen, Andover; Barbara Atwood, Woods Hole, Mass.; Donald and Barb Bailey, Andover; Garry and Margie Bartlett, Hanover; Bethel Animal Hospital, Gary Stuer, DVM, Bethel; David Berry and Karen Billings, Andover; Earlson and Alida Blood, South Lancaster, Mass.; J. Lee and Beverly Boyle, Mexico; Brooks Bros, Inc, Jeri Greenwell, Bethel; Dennis and Emily Bodemer, Andover; Richard and Evelyn Bodemer, Andover; Deb Burman, Harford; Alfred and Fay Chandler, Cambridge, Mass.; Henry and Nancy Chandler, Jr., Wolfboro, N.H.; Honey Cronin, Andover; Kathleen Crump and Kelly Donahue, Andover; Bruce and Ann Edwards, South Paris, in memory of Francis Edwards; Robert and Pearl Elliott, Dixfield; Mark and Sharon Farrington, East Andover; Keith and Janet Farrington, Andover; Gallant's Furniture, David Gallant, Roxbury; Carl and Cam Harrigan, Rumford; Arlene Harrington, East Bethel; Charlotte Hayes, Dixfield; Stephen and Rebecca Ellis Hudspeth, Wilton, Conn.; King Kong Services, Sid and Eileen Pew, East Andover; Knights of Pythias, Cabot Lodge 117, Andover; Dale and Karen McKay, Andover; Ethelene Merrill, Lewiston, in memory of my husband, Eugene Merrill; Roger and Lucille Mills, Windsor; Betty Moore, East Andover; Hanson and Elaine Morton, Andover; Alys Parsons, Andover; Richard and Ronniann Pelletier, Andover, in loving memory of Ray W. Learned; Archer Poor, Andover; Susan Ricker and William Zarakas, Byfield, Mass.; Roger and Barb Sabin, Andover; Beatrice Schneider, East Andover; Dr. William and Barbara Shellenberger, Wilmington, Del.; Steve and Cindy Simmons, Andover; Snow Valley Sno-Goers, Inc, Andover; Howard Spidell, Andover; Michael T. Steven and Associates, Bethel; Swasey Excavation, Steve Swasey, Andover; Brad and Lissa Thibodeau, East Andover; Joan Wallman, Randolph, Vt., in memory of Dorothy Campbell; Jack Williams, Wayland, Mass., in memory of Barbara Akers Williams; Dennis and Rita Wilson, Bethel; The Yates Family, Andover, in memory of Augusta Brynna Yates. Thank you for your contributions to the Edfund. All contributions are tax deductible under the 501 (c)(3) federal IRS code.

Maine Handicapped Skiing

Maine Handicapped Skiing, Maine's largest adaptive recreation program for adults and children with physical disabilities, is looking for new participants to learn to downhill and cross-country ski, snowboard or snowshoe in 2005.

Winter lessons are taught, free of charge, at three of Maine's premiere ski resorts: Sunday River Ski Resort, Sugarloaf/USA and Sunday River Inn and Cross Country Ski Center. In addition, in 2005, MHS will teach cross-country skiing and snowshoeing lessons at Pineland Farms in New Gloucester on Jan. 12 and 26, Feb. 9, 23, 24, and 25 and March 9 and 23.

If you have a physical disability or know someone who does, please call Maine Handicapped Skiing now at (800) 639-7770; e-mail MHS at info@skimhs.org or go online at www.skimhs.org for details.

SUMMIT RUN RESULTS

The 17th annual Summit Challenge at Sunday River Ski Resort took place Sunday. Fifty-eight runners competed on a three-mile course from South Ridge Base Lodge to the top of Locke Mountain. Results were as follows:

REAL ESTATE AND YOU
GETTING TO KNOW YOU
 When an agent begins to work with a new buyer, he or she will sit down with them and ask a lot of questions, and do a lot of listening. In the initial buyer interview, we try to get a clear idea of what you are looking for, as well as the approximate price range, considering your overall financial picture. The agent will explain how we work to represent you, what the local market is like, and what we can do to help you locate that perfect home.
 At this initial interview, it is important for buyers to be as clear as possible about their needs. After you have talked and decided how much you can comfortably spend, he or she won't show you homes you might love that are way out of your price range. If the agent knows that you have bad knees and want to avoid stairs, you won't be taken through three-story colonials with top floor master suites. Promoting clear communication with our customers is good business for us, and it can save you hours of house hunting.
 For professional advice on all aspects of buying or selling real estate, contact Cindy Hiebert at Mahoosuc Realty, 207-824-2771

MARTHA CHRISTIANSEN
Martha Christiansen, 54, of Lewiston, formerly a longtime resident of Norway, died Monday, Oct. 4, 2004, at central Maine Medical Center, Lewiston.
Born April 3, 1950, in Dover-Foxcroft, she was a daughter of Willis and Clara Thomas. She graduated from Foxcroft Academy, completed nurses training at St. Joseph's Hospital in Bangor, earned a BSW from the University of Southern Maine in Portland, and an MSW from SUNY, Albany, N.Y.
She loved classical and jazz music, fishing at the family camp, poetry, art, the Wizard of Oz, nature, butterflies, etymology of words, coffee, playing Scrabble, her pets, and everything purple.
She was an avid reader, and enjoyed traveling the world as a young woman.
She was a member of the MENSA Society and enjoyed any spirited discussion — from 'how many different greens are in the forest?' to String Theory.

Though illness and addiction complicated her life, she continually fought to overcome their bonds.
She is survived by her daughter, Jennifer and her husband Douglas Bennett of Bethel; her sister, Dee Bickmore of Kittery; a brother, John Thomas of Stuyvestant, N.Y.; nieces, Julie, Nikki and Katie; a nephew, John and good friend Edward Kutowski of Hampton, N.H.; favorite Aunt Jo; as well as several cousins.
Services will be announced at a later date. The family suggests, in lieu of flowers, donations may be made in her memory to: The MSAD44 Drug and Alcohol Awareness Program, 284 Walkers Mills Road, Bethel, ME 04217.

Card of Thanks

I wish to thank my friends and family for all the support and help they gave me during and since my recent surgery. Your cards, food, flowers, and visits were greatly appreciated. A special thanks to Jan Whitworth, P.A., at the Bethel Family Health Center.

ADELINE MCDERMOTT
Memorial services were held on Tuesday, Oct. 12, 2004 at Northkirk Presbyterian Church in Rancho Cucamonga, Calif., to celebrate the life of Adeline L. McDermott, age 77, of Desert Hot Springs, Calif., who passed away on Thursday, Oct. 7, 2004, in Sartell, Minn., after a courageous battle with cancer.
Adeline was born on Sept. 7, 1927, in Chicago, Ill., to William and Rena (DeBoer) Kooiman. Her family moved to the Milaca, Minn., area when she was a young girl. She married Thomas B. McDermott on May 14, 1948 in Pease, Minn. They resided in California for their entire marriage. Adeline's faith was very important and she became involved in church work wherever she resided. Adeline was active at Sky Valley Resort volunteering for many of the activities. Her love of travel brought her around the world.
She is survived by her five loving children, Patricia (Jeffrey) Parsons of Bethel, Marlee Rice of Sartell, Minn., Janet Newman of Missoula, Mont., Carrie (David) Baird of Alta Loma, Calif., Timothy McDermott of La Quinta, Calif.; 11 grandchildren, Emily, Thomas, Charles and Jonathon Parsons, Renee and Jessica Rice, Jacob, Allison and Michael Newman, Heidi and Brian Baird; four wonderful and caring sisters, Lois (Wallace) Timmer of Milaca, Shirley (Jerome) Hanenburg of Milaca, Beverly McLain of Cerritos, Calif., and Donna (Robert) Hastings of Milaca. She was preceded in death by her parents; husband, Thomas in 1990, and brother-in-law Gene McLain in 2003.

In lieu of flowers memorials are preferred to the Northkirk Presbyterian Church Building Fund at 9101 19th Street, Rancho Cucamonga, CA 91701.

Card of Thanks

Thank you for all of the wonderful words of encouragement during my mother's illness. I want to say thank you also for all of the cards and prayers after my mother's passing.

Terri-Lynn Perry October 15, 1968

When the sun is dawning and starting a new day, I say a prayer for you as I start my day.

As the day unfolds and memories seep in, I think of all the good times and all the what ifs and could have been.

The days of laughter, tantrums, crying and pain. What I would do to see you again. I see you in the sunshine and also the rain. I see you in a snowflake on our window pane.

As the day comes to a close and the sun goes down to set, I say a special prayer for you, wishing you peace and rest.

Happy Birthday, Our Princess
